Press Office: 860-240-8700

Rep. Floren, Rep. Sherer, Sen. Nickerson to Hold Town Meeting, Mar. 12

Invite Residents to Discuss Stem Cell Research, Medical Malpractice, Death Penalty

State Rep. Livvy R. Floren, R-149th, Rep. Donald B. Sherer, R- 147th, and Sen. William H. Nickerson, R-36th, will meet with members of the public at a Town Meeting, Saturday, March 12, from 9 to 11 a.m. at the Ferguson Library, Harry Bennett Branch, 115 Vine Road in Stamford.

Residents are cordially invited to attend. Rep. Floren and Rep. Sherer and Sen. Nickerson will discuss stem cell research, medical malpractice, the death penalty, as well as other issues expected to come before the 2005 session of the state legislature.

Rep. Floren said, "This is an opportunity for citizens to meet with their state representatives, to hear about action in the legislature, ask questions and raise issues. Clearly, transportation and education are important matters to our area, but we will be glad to deal with questions on other state-related concerns."

Rep. Sherer said, "There are many hot-button issues that will certainly arise this year, and we would like to hear voters' opinions on these matters. These include stem cell research, medical malpractice reform, the death penalty and medical use of marijuana, as well as other issues you would like to raise."

Sen. Nickerson said, "I look forward to hearing the concerns and questions of the people I represent in Stamford. While they are always welcome to contact my office, a Town Meeting offers an opportunity to interact through direct conversation regarding the issues important to the people of Stamford."

Rep. Floren serves the 149th Assembly District of Greenwich and Stamford, Rep. Sherer represents the 147th District of New Canaan and Stamford in the state House of Representatives. Sen. Nickerson serves the 36th District of Greenwich, New Canaan and Stamford in the state Senate.
